Mr. and Mrs. Aaron McConnell of Millersburg Sundayed here with relatives.

Mr. W. C. Curran is up from Cincinnati visiting his mother, Mrs. Hannah C. Curran of East Fourth street.

Miss Margaret Fritch has returned home, after visiting four weeks her relatives and friends in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Edward Rector of Chicago will arrive tomorrow evening on a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Davis.

Mr. E. T. Case of North Middletown, and sister, Mrs. E. A. Price of Paris, have returned home, after a visit to relatives in this county.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The revival at the Christian Church, conducted by Rev. R. H. Crossfield and Mr. J. E. Sturges, has so far resulted in upwards of forty additions.

At Sunday-school yesterday morning Mr. Crossfield made an address and at the close extended the invitation. In response ten Sunday-school children went forward and united with the Church. Two more were added at the morning Church service and four last night.

The sermon delivered by Mr. Crossfield last night on "Union of the Children of God" was a splendid plea for Church union. It was one of the very finest efforts that could have been given on this all-important subject and the preacher had the very closest attention of his congregation throughout his discourse. Tonight Mr. Crossfield will speak on "Side Doors to Heaven."

At 6 o'clock in the Sunday-school room of the Church, Mr. Crossfield will deliver his lecture on Sunday-school work, to which everyone is invited and urged to attend.

The weather: Fair today and Tuesday; warmer.

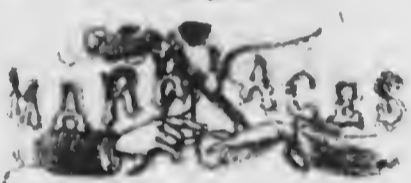

Under the law quail cannot be shot in Kentucky until November 15th.

Hon. A. P. Gooding of Mayfield left this morning for Florida. He will be gone about six weeks.

COCHRAN.

Hon. and Mrs. W. D. Cochran are rejoicing over the arrival of a handsome son at their home in the East End last night.

NAUMAN—SCHMAUCH.

The wedding of Miss Lillie Alberte Schmauch, daughter of Mr. Anton Schmauch of Ashland, and Mr. Charles Edward Nauman took place Thursday evening at the home of the bride, the Rev. Dr. W. C. Condit performing the ceremony.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nauman of this county, and is at present a lineman on the Big Sandy division of the C. and O. Railway.

The bridal couple is now on a trip to St. Louis and other points, after which they will return to Ashland and will go to housekeeping.

Among those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nauman and baby daughter, Gladys, Miss Emma Nauman and Mr. Walter Nauman of this county.

"HARVEST HOME"

Celebrated Last Night at the Third Street M. E. Church

"Harvest Home" was celebrated last evening at the Third Street M. E. Church, with an address that filled the Church to its capacity. As the pastor at these Harvest Home occasions, everything was done that was possible to make it a happy service.

The decorations were beautiful and were quite nicely arranged, thanks to the very efficient committee.

Rev. E. R. Overley, the eloquent young Pastor, seemed never more in the spirit than at this service. His text was the beautiful promise in Genesis, 8:22, "While the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease." His references to the wonderful care of God over his people from the earliest times even down to the present were convincing proofs of the fulfillment of the promise.

The custom of observing "Harvest Home" in this Church was inaugurated by its former Pastor, Rev. F. W. Harrop, and each new Pastor has entered joyfully into the arrangement, thus assisting to perpetuate a very beautiful and appropriate service. Its significance should take a deeper hold on the hearts of the people each year as they realize how wonderful and great are the harvests of this good land of ours.

A very pleasing feature was the presence of Rev. B. F. Chatham and his congregation from the First M. E. Church, South, who gave up their service to join in this "Harvest Home" occasion. The kind courtesy was very appreciated. Rev. L. R. Godby of the Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church was also present, he and Chatham each having a part.

Don't forget to register today.

THAT BUTTON FACTORY

THE LEDGER is informed by Mr. W. Holton Key that Eastern parties are still figuring on locating a big button factory at Maysville, provided $4,000 can be raised for them.

The concern agrees to expend $75,000 in wages before any of the $4,000 is paid over. The matter will doubtless be closed in ten days.

A BIG FIZZLE

The Meeting at the Courthouse Saturday Afternoon a Dismal Failure

Hon. John M. Wanh, Commonwealth's Attorney of the Thirty-second Judicial District, heralded in Democratic newspaper headlines and flaming posters as the most eloquent orator in Eastern Kentucky, addressed a handful of faithful Democrats—less than a hundred—at the Courthouse in this city Saturday afternoon.

The meeting was a frost, pure and simple, and instead of a "sea of upturned faces," the forceful and convincing speaker spoke to empty benches.

Notwithstanding his reception was a decidedly cool one, Mr. Wanh spoke in glowing terms of the hospitality of the good people of old Mason county. Teddy Roosevelt's "new Nationalism" seemed to bother his mind considerably, as his speech was largely made up on this subject.

There was a large Saturday crowd of farmers in town but scarcely a baker's dozen attended the speaking. General Apathy is in command of the Kentucky Democracy and there is going to be great disappointment in the Democratic household after the November election.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. AUGUSTE VESPERMANN, De Forest, Wisconsin.

Another Operation Avoided. New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial first, and was saved from an operation."—Mrs. LILY PEYROUX, 1111 Kerlerec St., New Orleans, La.

Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many women suffer.

If you want special advice about your case write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

"THE CROWNING OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN"

The Maysville High School is indebted to one of our benevolent citizens for a real and beautiful picture, a work of art, of the French school of 125 years ago. The subject is "The Crowning of Franklin," and is a fine, large lithograph picture showing the laurel wreath being placed upon the head of Benjamin Franklin, the great American philosopher, at Paris at the Versailles Court of King Louis XVI. and Queen Marie Antoinette. The picture once sold for $500 and is now the property of the Maysville High School and is to be given a prominent place in our beautiful school building.

The picture is now on exhibition in Miss Ella Metcalfe's room and will later be hung in the reception parlor.

The High School has just received an up-to-date and additional equipment for the laboratory, which cost $500.

It is safe to say that under Superintendent Bradner and his efficient corps of assistants, the Maysville High School will compare favorably with any school in the world.

Backache is only a simple thing at first:
But when you know 'tis from the kidneys;
That serious kidney troubles follow;
That diabetes, Bright's disease may be the fatal end,

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

'Tis the honest statement of a sufferer who was cured.

Thomas Runk. East Second street, Vance burg, Ky., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble and inflammation of the bladder for over ten years, some of the attacks being so severe that I really thought I would die. A complete retention of the kidney secretions existed and I called a doctor who drew the secretions from me with an instrument. None but those who have gone through this can imagine the suffering I endured. Some time ago I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and I procured a box. Since using them I have had not had any trouble from my kidneys."

Gentlemen: "On Jan. 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular Peritonitis at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y.
After the operation my physicians gave me up. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs.
I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 lbs., and am absolutely cured."

Gas Light Talks—No. 43.

No Discrimination.

We explained, in Saturday's Talk, something about the relative positions of the Gas company and the Street Railway.

You will remember we made the statement that competition between these two interests threatened when the Street Railway's charter was amended to permit it to acquire stock in an electric light company.
And such a company was forming at the time.

Also we told you how this competition was avoided and a friendly interest created out of the Street Railway, owing to its purchase by the then directors of this company, R. A. Cochran, W. H. Cox and Newton Cooper.

These gentlemen made this purchase out of their own funds because, at that time, the Gas company was not in a position to do it and because it was imperative that this action be taken in order to assure the future welfare of the Gas company.

As a matter of fact, it was also necessary from the Street Railway's point of view, because competition in the electrical field would have been as disastrous to it as to the Gas company and Maysville would not now be enjoying its present excellent public service facilities. The companies would have been crippled and such service as is now maintained would have been financially impossible.

Therefore, it was necessary that the two interests work in harmony and the three gentlemen who brought about this condition through their personal efforts and expenditures, performed an act for which the city has every reason to be thankful.

For, not only did Messrs. Cochran, Cox and Cooper purchase the stock of the Street Railway, but they assumed its indebtedness and brought order out of chaos.

Number seven of the Mayor's questions is as follows: How much do the directors of the Gas & Electric Company pay for their own private lighting and heating?

This question may be regarded as somewhat of a slur, but the administration is more or less given to that sort of thing, so it is not altogether to be wondered at.

The answer is simple, however. Everybody connected with the company, from the president down, pays full and regular rates for all gas, electricity, coke or supplies. Moreover, their bills are rendered monthly in exactly the same manner as those of other consumers and, in their private dealings with the company, they are subject to exactly the same rules as other customers.
